Our Celtic cross was constructed by Rev. J. H. Bishop, a former pastor of Jesup Presbyterian Church (1960-1962). In 2006, it was refinished by Elder Carlton Windsor and is proudly processed each year on Scottish Heritage Sunday.

We thank Greg Beck for providing the bagpipes.

Prayer of Confession (followed by a time of silent personal prayer)

Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life; to the glory of Thy holy name. Amen

"The Scots Confession of 1560"

We confess and acknowledge one God alone, to whom alone we must cleave, whom alone we must serve, whom only we must worship, and in whom alone we put our trust. Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible; one in substance and yet distinct in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. By whom we confess and believe all things in heaven and earth, visible and invisible, to have been created, to be retained in their being, and to be ruled and guided by His inscrutable providence for such end as His eternal wisdom, goodness, and justice have appointed, and to the manifestation of His own glory. Amen

* Prayer of Dedication: (In Unison)

O God of boundless love, you restore our strength through faith in your goodness. You look with favor upon us and through Christ redeem us. You take not yourself from us, but promise your presence through the gift of your Spirit. You come from behind to push us, and go before us as our guide. Accept now what we bring you in response to your encompassing care for us. Amen

A Moment of Remembrance for the Saints who have entered the Church Triumphant

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: God of the ages, we praise you for all your servants, who have done justice, loved kindness, and walked humbly with their God. For apostles and martyrs and saints of every time and place, who in life and death have witnessed to your truth,

People: we praise you, O God.

Leader: For all your servants who have faithfully served you, witnessed bravely, and died in faith, who still are shining lights in the world,

People: we praise you, O God.

Leader: For those no longer remembered, who earnestly sought you in darkness, who held fast their faith in trial, and served others,

People: we praise you, O God.

Leader: For those we have known and loved, who by their faithful obedience and steadfast hope, have shown the same mind that was in Christ Jesus,

People: we praise you, O God.

Leader: Keep us grateful for their witness, and, like them, eager to follow in the way of Christ. Then at the last, bring us with them to share in the inheritance of the saints in light; through Jesus Christ the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Raising of the Tartans

Prayer of Dedication of Tartans

Rev. Pete Ullmann

Almighty God, who has promised that wherever two or three are gathered in Thy name, Thou will meet with Thy servants to bless them, fulfill now Thy promise and make us joyful in the house of the Lord, that our worship being offered in the name of Thy Son and by the guidance of Thy Spirit may be acceptable unto You. Bless we beseech Thee, these tartans that they may be unto us and unto all people a token of the faith of our ancestors and bless all signs of the heritage of faith of those assembled and make them signs of our service unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
